

Pre-Sea Deck Rating

UT-MAR-DMA-004

Course Overview

To introduce trainees to maritime industry with basic theoretical knowledge in general ship board operations in harmony with their duties

To facilitate students to maritime industry to adapt with confidence to the demands and opportunities of a team approach to shipboard operations

On successful completion of the 1-month course the trainee will have:

- A basic knowledge of watch-keeping, general shipboard operations and maintenance
- A firm basic for further development of knowledge and skills in practical work situations under supervision onboard ship
- An appropriate fundamental knowledge of Code of Safe Working Practices for Merchant Seamen.
- Introduction to shipping industry
- Familiarization to Ship & Navigational watch
- General Ship Knowledge
- Ship's Construction
- Cargo Work
- Introduction to Code of Safe Working Practice
- Practical Seamanship
- Painting & preparation
- Pollution Prevention and Garbage Management
- Communication using English

STANDARD

DMA

FREQUENCY

on demand

DURATION

20 Days

LANGUAGE

English/Myanmar

PRICING

Contact UT Admin

PREREQUISITES

18 years of age or more 10 standard or higher education. Meet medical fitness requirements.

VALIDITY

5 YEARS

